

Speaker

Carlos Bogran...is an Assistant Professor and Extension Specialist in Entomology from the Texas A&M University campus in Bryan, Texas. His emphasis is to increase adoption of IPM strategies by nursery growers through promoting and demonstrating pest management and IPM-compatible tools including cultural practices, selective pesticides and biological control agents.

Carlos is strongly bilingual in both Spanish and English and has presented numerous workshops to Spanish language audiences. It is a real treat for us to have him presenting in Florida. See him August 4, 2009, from 9:00 am to 2:00 pm!
